Failure to act within the said twenty-five (25) working days shall be deemed to constitute an abandonment of said grievance.

(b) The supervisor shall render a decision in writing within five (5) working days after the receipt of the grievance.

(c) In the event that the grievance pertains to the immediate supervisor,- this step may be omitted at the discretion of the grievant and his or her immediate supervisor. The aggrieved will forward a copy of the grievance to his immediate supervisor in all situations.

Step 2 - In the event said settlement has not been reached, the aggrieved shall in writing and signed, file his complaint with the Chief of Police within five (5) working days following the determination of Step 1. The Chief of Police or his designees shall meet with the aggrieved and render his decision in writing within five (5) working days after the aforementioned meeting.

Failure to act within the said five (5) days will be deemed to constitute abandonment of said grievance.

Step 3 - Should the aggrieved disagree with the decision of the Chief, the aggrieved may present the grievance in writing within five (5) working days from the date of the decision to the Public Safety Director. The Public Safety Director will meet with the aggrieved within twenty-four (24) days after his/her receipt of the aggrieved's written grievance, and shall render his/her decision within five (5) working days after the aforementioned meeting.

The aggrieved's failure to present the grievance in writing with the Public Safety Director within five (5) working days after the decision of the chief, shall be deemed to constitute an abandonment of said grievance.

Step 4 - If the Public Safety Director and the Mayor are the same individual, and the aggrieved disagrees with the decision made at Step 3, then the aggrieved may immediately proceed to Step 5 of the grievance procedure. Step 5 - Should the aggrieved be dissatisfied with the Mayor's decision, such person has within fourteen (14) days after the Mayor's decision to request, in writing, binding arbitration, as to non-disciplinary matters.

In the event that arbitration is not requested within fourteen (14) days the grievance shall be deemed abandoned, and the matter may not then thereafter be arbitrated; except that with respect to disciplinary matters, nothing in this article shall waive an employee's right to appeal major discipline (suspensions of more than five days) pursuant to Department of Personnel Law or Regulations, or from appealing minor discipline (suspension of five days or less) as may be otherwise provided by law. See e.g. Romanowski v. --Brick Township, 185 N.J. Super. 197 (L. 1982), Aff'd 192 N.J. Super, 79 (App. Div. 1983).

Both employer and the Association shall have the right to strike two names from the panel. The Association shall strike the first name, the other party shall strike one (1) name. The process will be repeated and the remaining person shall be the arbitrator.

The aforementioned arbitration will be binding upon the parties in non-disciplinary matters. The arbitrator shall be requested to issue his decision within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of testimony and argument. It is intended by this provision to give the employee the option to appeal his case under the Department of Personnel rules and regulations and through Department of Personnel procedures or arbitration, but not both. It is not intended to change or modify or alter in any fashion the Department of Personnel rules and regulations, but in effect only to give an additional alternative remedy to an employee. A grievant must elect to proceed either under arbitration or Department of Personnel, not both.

Expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the employer and the Association. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such record to be made, providing it pays for the record and makes copies available, without charge, to the other party and to the arbitrator.

The only grievances or disputes which may be substituted for arbitration shall be those arising out of the meaning, application and interpretation of the provisions of the agreement. The arbitrator shall have no power to add or subtract from or modify any of the terms of this agreement.
